Mr. Lauson:

My clients have not waived service or authorized me to accept service on their behalf. Below are addresses that we discussed yesterday. We also discussed personal jurisdiction and my clients' intention to move to dismiss for lack of personal jurisdiction, as in the prior lawsuit. If you have any information or materials that I should consider before filing a motion, please forward them to me ASAP.

You named Mako Productions as a defendant, despite the company's cessation of all operations and dissolution in a bankruptcy liquidation years ago. This violates the bankruptcy court's discharge injunction.

Hi Valerie.

If we don't get a response of a new address without asking again, I would be fine, when we get the other one served, that we send the Judge the pictures and tell him where they sent us. Rather expose the games now with things this blatant.

Hope your day is going well.

Cheers,

David.

Our process server spoke with Carla, the owner of the marina, today. Carla says John Dann does not live on his boat or anywhere on the marina or campground. No one is allowed to live on their boats there. Dann rents slip #10 for the sole purpose of storing his boat. She has not seen Dann for many weeks.

Our process server went back out there and found a sailboat in slip #10 on the marina side. The people in the office are not sure if his boat is the one in slip #10 or #11. (Only the marina owners can verify that info and they are out of town). The office people said they believe he lives there only part time as he is hardly ever there and it has been "quite some time" since anyone has seen him. The process server left a business card on both boats (#10 and #11) and we'll see what happens.
